CHODOSHIM TAMUZ-AV 5766

Volume 10, Issue 10

June—August
2006

BEIN HA'M'TSARIM

The three weeks between the Fast of Tamuz and Tisha B'Av is the most mournful period of the Jewish calendar. The Talmud tells us of five tragic events which occurred on the 17th day of Tamuz: (1) The first set of Ten Commandments was broken. (2) The sacrifices were discontinued. (3) The walls of Jerusalem were breached by the conquering Romans. (4) Apostomus, the tyrant, burned the Torah in order to uproot Judaism from memory, and (5) set up an idol in the Temple.

The Talmud then records 5 tragic events that occurred on Tisha B'Av: (1) The decree was issued in the desert that Israel would have to wait 40 years before entering the land. (2) The First Temple was destroyed. (3) The second temple was destroyed. (4) Betar was captured. (5) Jerusalem was ploughed over by the Romans.

We also mourn the tragedy of exile and all the destruction of Jewish history. And this is reflected in kinot for the marracres of the period of the crusades, and for the Cossack pograms of 1648-49. In our shul, we also include a Kinah for the Kedoshim of the Shoah.

OBSERVANCES

The fast of Tamuz will occur on Tuesday, July 18th, marked by fasting from dawn until the appearance of the stars, as well as by the recitation of Selichot. Throughout the three weeks, marriages are forbidden and public celebration curbed. Throughout the first nine days of the month of Av we refrain from eating meat and drinking wine (except for Shabbat) and refrain from pleasurable activities such as swimming.

On Tisha B'Av we sit on low benches until noon. We wear our Talit and Tefillin during Mincha service and not during Shacharit when the mourning is still intense. We refrain on Tisha B'Av from eating and drinking, washing for pleasure, anointing with oil and cosmetics, wearing leather shoes, and conjugal relations. Even the study of Torah must be limited to mournful themes.

Seudah Mafseket

On Erev Tisha B'Av, before the fast, our Seudah Mafseket - the last meal before the fast, is eaten while sitting on a low stool or on the floor. One is permitted just one cooked food item. By custom, this consists of a hard boiled egg, or a plate of beans accompanied by a slice of bread.

Since we clearly need more than that to fortify us for the fast, the general practice is to eat a regular dairy meal before Mincha. We then daven Mincha and eat the Seudah Mafseket right before the fast.

TU B'AV

The fifteenth day of Av is a day of joy coming just six days after the fast. While many reasons are listed in the Talmud for this holiday, perhaps the most compelling is this: on the 15th of Av the Jews were permitted to bury the dead of Betar after its destruction six days earlier. In effect, we rejoice because we can bring closure to the mourning of Tisha B'Av. This year Tu B'Av will occur on Monday, July 30th.
