FROM OUR RABBI...

Shavuot

The festival of Shavuot is one of the three pilgrim festivals of the calendar in which Jews in Temple times would come up to Jerusalem in thanksgiving to God. Shavuot is Zman Matan Torateinu – the festival that commemorates the giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai. It is significant that the Torah does not designate a date for Shavuot. We know its occurrence purely in terms of the counting of the Omer which begins on the eve of the second night of Pesach and concludes after forty-nine days of counting. The next day, the fiftieth, is Shavuot. Incidentally, since we must count and observe forty-nine complete days of the Omer, we cannot begin Shavuot evening services on the first night until after dark.

Even the connection of Shavuot with the giving of the Torah is something we can learn only by inference from the Torah; indeed, the Talmudic rabbis are divided in terms of which day in Sivan was the actual date of the giving of the Torah. Even the exact geographical location of Mt. Sinai is not known to us in spite of certain Arab and Christian traditions locating it. There can be no question that the Torah intends on being purposefully vague about this. This is because the Torah is bound to neither time nor space – it is binding on all Jews at all times and under all conditions.

This is the majestic message of Shavuot: that God has entered into human events by revealing His Torah to Israel, thus making them an eternal people with an eternal Torah beyond spatial/temporal limitations.

May God purify our hearts to serve Him with love and grant our portion in His Torah.

Tikun Leyl Shavuot

Once again we will conduct our Tikun Leyl Shavuot in conjunction with Fuchs Mizrachi, Young Israel, Kollel Torat Tzion and N.C.S.Y. Both adult and Teen learning will be at Green Road Synagogue beginning at 12:15 am. At dawn the Hashkama Minyan will follow the night of learning. Refreshments will be served.
